HIGHLIGHTERS:

1. Students get to learn more about the insides of the company their alumni are a part of. They have the opportunity to ask more questions and learn better from their Alumni work experience. Alumni's provide career guidance and encouragement in academic developments, which become a strong foundation for their professional careers. Work experience gives an insight into the profession the students are going to venture into and also a smart way to prepare for the tactics they'll have to face and get used to.
2. Alumni's can help a student establish more contacts from the beginning, later helping them in their lives. Contacts help you to establish contacts with numerous field experts.
3. Students get to understand the semantics of professionalism. A Alumni's program is an excellent plethora of such opportunities. Students idealize their mentors and get a perception of who they wish to be six years down the line.
4. The motivation levels increase as the students become part of the Alumni programs. Students, on getting guidance and direction, become more enthusiastic about whom they wish to become. They have their idols guiding them all the way through in a Alumni's program, and so they feel motivated to do the same in the future.
5. Students become self-aware. They understand what they should be doing and whatnot. They also get a better perspective of the field. They channel their time and energy efficiently. They do not indulge in time-consuming activities, which are not going to benefit them anyhow. They try to find creative ways to accomplish their goals.
6. Alumni's become a part of your sounding plan. You have someone to discuss your ideas with. You have an edge for improvement. If your plan has chances of going wrong somewhere, you have someone to discuss and improvise it.
7. Students get a wider perspective of industrial standards. They get a closer look into the workings of an industry they are soon going to be a part of.
8. They get advanced knowledge of how to strike a balance between work and personal life. The entire schedule becomes hectic, so having knowledge of the chaos and how to maintain peace with it is necessary. Who could be better to provide them with the proficiency they seek other than their Alumni's.

9. Getting your desired job is not enough, you'll be earning money, but if you don't know how to manage it, then it certainly will find its way out sooner than it came. Money management is one such exceptional part of alumni mentorship programs.
10. Professional growth is not easy. It takes a lot of time and hard work. But if you already know the tactics, it gets simpler for you. Alumni membership programs are excellent forums to train you in the domain.
11. Alumni mentorship programs will help the alumni to connect with their alma mater. And you never know if they become your recruiters. Thus the entire system could benefit from the entire process. Alumni Mentorship is one such promising program for students, institutions, and alumni.

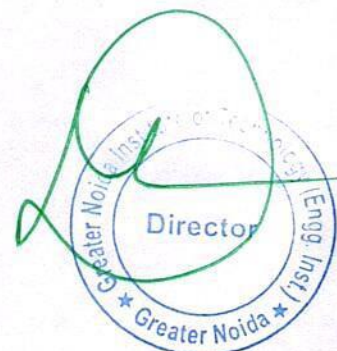

The Event was Hosted by Ms. Uma Tomar (Assistant Professor, IT) and vote of thanks by Dr. Ajay Kumar Sahu (Associate Professor, Information Technology)

The session was attended by more than 100 students and all faculty members of IT.

Date of Event: September, 28, 2018

The Alumni cell of GNIOT organised a talk for the newly inducted students of B.Tech First year. Who else can tell better about an institute than its alumni? This was the main intent behind the talk. The GNIOT Alumni cell invited Mr. Vijay Ranjan, a distinguished alumni of CSE from 2006 batch to brief the students about his journey from college to after college. Mr. Vijay told the students about the challenges that he faced as a student as it was just the second batch of the institute but at the same time, he said that he feels proud to see the development and growth of the institute over the years. Mr. Vijay Ranjan is an entrepreneur and is working with a startup with one of his friend Mr. Anup who is also a proud alumnus of ECE 2006 batch. He encouraged the students to explore the surroundings and look for real life problems and think of providing solution to that. Mr. Anup also accompanied Mr. Vijay to the campus. The session was highly interactive and attended by around 200 students. The students were very curious to know about the success mantra of Mr. Vijay and what exactly is required to become an entrepreneur. The talk was attended by Honourable Director GNIOT, Dean Academics, Dean B.Tech First Year and all the faculty members of B.Tech First Year. At the end of the talk, Mr. Vijay promised the students to revisit the campus and recruit and train few students for their new startup.
